Burgundy

Corton-Charlemagne 2004 (Domaine Bouchard Père & Fils) Burghound.com: 93-95 Green apple, white pear and hint of crushed herb are framed by gentle notes of pain grillé that combine with huge and unbelievably intense flavors blessed with phenomenal power and length. This has that "wow" factor as the flavors are both palate staining and almost painfully intense and the finale is like a block of stone.	974758	$139.00
Chevalier-Montrachet 2004 (Domaine Bouchard Père & Fils) Burghound.com: 92-95 As it almost always is, this is notably more elegant aromatically with its airy white flower, spice and limestone aromas that precede textured, pure and defined flavors that possess an utterly different texture and mouth feel, all wrapped in a brilliantly focused and mouth coating finish.	14969	$269.00
Le Corton 2005 (Domaine Bouchard Père & Fils) – v red Burghound.com: 93 – 95 A brooding nose with almost no discernable wood influence of very ripe and moderately earthy aromas where the earth continues onto the rich, ripe and impressively dense flavors that also are textured and palate drenching supported by buried yet relatively fine tannins that are rendered almost completely invisible by the superb level of dry extract. This is a big bad boy fashioned in classic old school Corton style with huge aging potential.	973834	$119.00
