NEW ADDITIONS

Nikka Coffey Vodka

$59.95

Creamy, viscous texture, crystal clean flavour, and an exceptionally long, mildly peppery finish.

Vilarnau Barcelona Brut Reserva Cava

$15.95

Award-winning Spanish sparkler that puts top-quality celebratory sparkle in your glass for an unbeatable price.

Rotari Brut Trento DOC 2014

$19.95

A perfect aperitif, casual sipper, or as an accompaniment to a range of lighter, summer fare. Champagne quality at a fraction of the cost.

Cliffhanger Pinot Grigio 2018 DOC, Trentino

$15.95

Crisp and refreshing, this has aromas of ripe orchard fruit and spring wildflower. The bright palate evokes yellow pear and green melon before a tangy finish. Score: 88 (Kerin O'Keefe, Wine Enthusiast, Aug. 1, 2019)

William Fèvre Saint Bris 2018, Chablis

$24.95

Sauvignon Blanc from the legendary region of Burgundy is found only in Saint-Bris. Expect this wine to offer green apple, pear and grass notes, with a racy, focused acidity. Sip, or pair with seafood appetizers.

ITALY

Mezzacorona Pinot Grigio 2018, Trentino

$14.95

A terrific wine that consistently over-delivers. Bright and fresh, leading with floral tones, apple and citrus. There's a whisper of minerality, almond and a touch of fennel. An easygoing match for salads, chicken and a casual after-dinner glass.

Stemmari Grillo 2018, Sicily

$14.95

Grillo is arguably the most important white grape in Sicily. Native to the island, it flourishes in sites with sandy soils and plenty of sunshine. This example is aromatic, crisp and fruity, with peach, grapefruit and gorgeous savoury herbal tones.

Bollini Pinot Grigio 2018, Trentino

$18.95

For many years, we've believed Bollini is one of the best wines you can find. Ripe and fresh, it presents exceptional value. Offering delicate pear, melon and honey, with some nods toward apple and mineral. A great food wine for pasta primavera, light appetizers, turkey breast or grilled chicken.

ITALY

Mezzacorona Pinot Noir 2017, Trentino

$14.95

New to our market, here's an amazing value. Pinot Noir at this price rarely tastes so complete! From grapes sourced entirely in the foothills of the Italian Dolomites, look for bright red cherry, raspberry and a hint of spice. The medium-bodied, fruity style makes a great pairing for charcuterie, grilled salmon or roasted chicken.

Monte Antico 2016, Tuscany

$15.95

A tribute to Tuscany made by renowned oenologist Franco Bernabei. Sourcing fruit from different altitudes and soils throughout the region, the result is a modern Tuscan blend of Sangiovese, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon. Expect black cherry, plums, savoury liquorice, violets and vanilla, with enough structure for short-term cellaring or pairing with food tonight. Great with spaghetti and meatballs, or grilled lamb with mushroom risotto.

Allegrini La Grola 2016, Veneto

$29.95

90% Corvina, 10% Oseleta. Very inky and toasty nose. On the palate the wine is elegant, fresh and poised with classy, well-integrated oak, flavours of plums and cherries and tight tannins, which will soften in time. Score - 95. (Decanter World Wine Awards, 2019)

FRANCE

Domaine Hitaire La Petite Hitaire 2018, Cotes du Gascogne

$10.10

A charming, fleet-footed and aromatic blend of Ugni Blanc, Colombard, Gros Manseng and a splash of Sauvignon Blanc. The perfect go-to for the summer months. Intensely floral with bright citrus and layers of exotic fruit on the nose; the palate is bright and crisp, with round canned stonefruit character balancing the zingy acid then finishing with finesse and freshness.

Bouchard Père & Fils Macon-Lugny Saint-Pierre 2018, Burgundy

$22.00

One of the first wines available from the widely praised 2018 vintage, what a treat they will be when they arrive! The Macon region is the most southerly region of Burgundy, and its wines typically demonstrate richness and intensity that benefit youthful consumption. Enjoy the profile of ripe apple and pear with citrus, spicy and nutty notes. Serve with fish, seafood, roasted chicken or a selection of fine cheeses.

Bouchard Père & Fils Pouilly-Fuisse 2018, Burgundy

$33.45

When looking for a ripe, Burgundian Chardonnay along the lines of the New World, look no further than Pouilly-Fuisse. Expect notes citrus, pineapple, vanilla and chestnut. There's enough richness to stand up to heartier seafood and poultry, while remaining balanced and fresh.

Bouchard Père & Fils Reserve Pinot Noir 2017, Burgundy

$22.00

The Bouchard Père Domaine is one of the most storied in all of Burgundy. Their reds are always extremely reflective of the villages and climats they come from. In this bottling, Bouchard has crafted an affordable, everyday Burgundy. The care and attention to detail from their top wines is applied to this regional blend. Pale ruby colour; ripe strawberry and raspberry aromas; earth and mushroom on the palate with a long finish.

Bouchard Père & Fils Petit Chablis 2018, Burgundy

$26.45

With grapes sourced from specific sites within the Chablis region, this white shows beautiful aromas of lemon, green apple and pear. The palate is medium-bodied and dry with vibrant acidity leading to a crisp, clean and refreshing finish. Serve with grilled calamari beside baby greens.

FRANCE

William Fevre Chablis Champs Royaux 2018

$29.95

Clean and balanced, this white offers white peach, apple and floral aromas and flavors. A hint of mineral graces the mouthwatering finish. Drink now through 2023. Score - 90. (Bruce Sanderson, winespectator.com, Dec. 15, 2019)

Château La Nerthe Châteauneuf-du-Pape 2016

$58.95

Creamy textured plum and raspberry sauce notes glide through, flecked with black tea and pastis flavors and framed by a subtle apple wood hint. Flattering in feel, but shows latent cut and drive, so there's no rush. Grenache, Syrah, Mourvèdre and Cinsault. Best from 2020 through 2034. Score - 93. (James Molesworth, winespectator.com, Oct. 15, 2019)

SPAIN

Beronia Tempranillo 2017, Rioja

$13.95

When in doubt, a staple that saves the day! This has been our house wine for years, and for good reason. Dark ruby, with sweetly savoury notes of dark berries, cedar and spice. Medium bodied, dry, with supple tannins and further replays of dark fruits on the finish. Barbecue friendly, and a nice stand-in for juicy Chianti when enjoying your favourite pastas.

Beronia Tempranillo Elaboracion Especial 2017, Rioja

$16.95

Rioja with a special kick: this cuvee is made by conducting both primary and secondary fermentations in the barrel. The result is bold, rich, smooth and smoky. Cherries, currants, vanilla, mocha and allspice. Give it a whirl with ribs, roasts, or rack of lamb.

Beronia Reserva 2015, Rioja

$21.95

If you ever wanted a textbook example of Rioja, look no further. Tempranillo, Graciano and Mazuelo aged in a combination of French and American oak. Deep, dark and spicy with brambly raspberry and blackberry, black cherry, vanilla, smoke, anise and black pepper. Fire up your grill and savour with blackened steaks or smoky burgers.

Descendientes de J. Palacios Pétalos 2017, Bierzo

$24.95

Dry farmed bush vines are 40-90 years old, planted at a very high density. One can just visualize the mules manually tilling the field. Everything about the wine resounds excellence. Look for luscious aromatics, as well as a rich palate with loads of raspberry, black cherry, blueberry, damson plums and floral tones. A sterling partner for the gamut of fowl, lamb, or hearty, grilled red meats.
